“ Amie,
I can still remember your laughter
Like it was yesterday, but long after
Your stories, both elaborate and true
Made me smile in a way only you could do
A childhood friend that I will never forget
It was an honor to know you, no regret
But to see you part this world so early
Many hearts will weep and lives will change, surely
And though I wish you could be here still
One day we will meet again by Gods' will
May he take you in and give you comfort
And watch over those in this time of hurt
Your spirit will live on through those you've touched
Giving hope to those who will miss you so much
More than a daughter, a mother and a friend
You will remain in our thoughts to the very end.

“ We share the same first name, with different spelling, respectfully. Our name means beloved, love. Amie had a passion for life that was measured in laughter. That laugh is all I can think about when I think of her. Beloved, I'm sure this rings true within her life and her memory.

“ Amie was a fantastic mother. I cannot remember seeing her kids without a smile when they were at the baseball games or when she was up at the school. To lose someone who lived for others is a terrible loss to everyone who knew her and those who never got the chance.

“ There are not enough words in this world to say how sorry I am for the loss of such a beautiful and wonderful woman. “ Amie was the sweetest person. Me, her, and her brother used to hang out everyday when I moved to Yale years ago. We had the best times!!! Most memorable was our "treasure hunt." I hadn't seen her in years and she stopped on Mother's Day to Shirley's because she seen I was there. She had a big smile on her face as she always did. We hugged and told each other it was nice seeing one another. I never thought in a million years that would be the last. She will forever be in my heart. Her family are in my prayers! Love you Amie!! Love, Amy Edwards

“ Amies last words after work walking to her car was be careful on my bike. This breaks my heart. I looked forward to her coming in. No matter how bad my day was she somehow made me laugh. She's touched my heart hearing stories about her kids and life. Helped me though telling me quit thinking like a kid. This next weekend is faster horses I'm going for my birthday. She kept telling me she was jealous I was gonna have so much fun. Well I hope I do. I know I'll be thinking about her a lot well I'm there since she answered my 120 questions about it. I pray for your family and friends and def your children. She touched my heart and I never realized it until I hear this. :/ I wish I could attend to show my respect. But I'm gonna drink one just for you. R.I.P Hot mamas! <3

“ Amie was a beautiful, smart fun, easy going person. She also very devoted mom and loved and cherished all in her family. She had true courage, a heart of an angel and also loved to cook up new and interesting things. I met Amie through her Mom, Karen and feel very blessed to have know her for the time period our paths have crossed.

“ I worked with Amie at Marwood, we worked different shifts but I had the pleasure of getting to know her a little bit when I worked an afternoon shift with her and we chatted for awhile. I felt like I could have talked to her for hours. She had a beautiful smile and talked so much about her children and her Mother. She even commented that she doesn't know what she would do without her Mother, that she is her rock. You could tell she was such a proud mother herself. She will be missed. Gone too soon but never forgotten. Prayers to the family and friends. RIP Amie

“ it literally takes my breath away. Our beautiful Amie is gone from this place. I feel blessed to have wonderful memories of my exceptional niece. Even now, her love for me keeps shouting from within me, "I'm here, Aunt Pam!". I will treasure and hold her living love close in my essence for the remainder of my days on this planet. Thank-you, Heavenly Father, for the time we had with YOUR child, Amie, the assurance we have of her being in the fullness of your love, and the promise of being reunited.

“ I am the secretary at the school where Amie's children attend. She was a wonderful mother. She was also a wonderful aunt to her nieces and nephew that attend the same building. She was always a pleasure to deal with. She sure did have a big smile and and even bigger devotion to her children and brother's children. My heart is just heavy for her entire family.

*I see the countless Christmas trees around the world below
With tiny lights, like Heaven's stars, reflecting on the snow
The sight is so spectacular, please wipe away the tear
For I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.
I hear the many Christmas songs that people hold so dear
But the sounds of music can't compare with the Christmas choir up here.
I have no words to tell you, the joy their voices bring,
For it is beyond description, to hear the angels sing.
I know how much you miss me, I see the pain inside your heart
But I am not so far away, we really aren't apart.
So be happy for me, dear ones, you know I hold you dear.
And be glad I'm spending Christmas
with Jesus Christ this year.
I sent you each a special gift, from my heavenly home above.
I sent you each a memory of my undying love.
After all, love is a gift more precious than pure gold
It was always most important in the stories Jesus told.
Please love and keep each other, as my Father said to do
For I can't count the blessing or love he has for each of you
So have a Merry Christmas and wipe away that tear
Remember, I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.
