“ I know Tony was one of God's children, and he tried to do his best to provide love and support for his family and children. Sometimes in life we may become sidetracked, and we may not always make the right decisions. God knows this. He knows we all do the best we can, and He knows all his children are "works in progress". May God bless Tony for his positive achievements on this earth, and welcome him into His loving arms. Amen.##imported-begin##Jim Henning Sr.##imported-end##

“ The last time I saw Tony he was in Joanie French's kindergarten room. As a student aide in the classroom I knew that he was an incredible kid(my favorite), and I had a feeling he would grow up to be an equally incredible man. Always confident and wise beyond his years, that is my memory of Tony. I am so sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Linda (Hillis) Bugajski##imported-end##

“ We are so sad about what happened. It is hard to understand why this tragedy has to occur. We experienced a similar situation with our niece. The thought that carries you through is knowing that we have a forgiving God who understands their inner turmoils and accepts them with loving arms. He is at peace and is watching over you. You will meet again someday in a glorious reunion. Our prayers are with Tony and your family.##imported-begin##Barb, Brett, Kent & Dylan Dankenbring##imported-end##

“ Years ago and miles apart, we separated. Things said and done long forgotten, you've moved on to a different place now. Tony, if I could turn back time, I would make sure that we became brothers again. Though that chance has passed, I will carry that regret with me for the rest of my life. As a child, I looked up to you as a role model of responsibility and work ethic, just like our Dad. You were always a hard worker, and never minded getting dirty to get the job done. You were a great provider and father to your children, and I hope that they hold that in their hearts... and remember that you loved them more than anything. I'm sorry, Tony. I hope you can forgive me. Till we meet again, brother... I'll be seeing you....

To the family,

We are so deeply sorry we are unable to come to Michigan. Words are at a loss, but family, no matter how far apart, should be close. We love you all, and you are all in your hearts. May you remember Tony at his best and let that linger. Lean not on your own understanding, but that of the Lord's. We love you, and we pray for your peace.

Love,
