“ 3 in the morning and something woke me. A dream of my sweet, precious love...Anthony.

*Oh, how I wish I could drive to see you and lay and talk forever about our futures. Or call/text you so we could laugh for hours or just to hear you tell me you will always love me. You still and always will be the love of my life. If only we wouldn't have lost our baby. But, I know you are enjoying every second with your baby now! Until I see you and meet our baby in heaven!
I love you and I miss my flowers you would make special for me at your Dads when I would come stay with you!
Miss you dearly and love you to then end!
Forever ❤️🥺❤️*

“ My Dearest Anthony, you are always in my heart and not a day goes by that I don't think about you and the love, happiness and many memories we shared together. Our love was so true and such a wonderful love-story. You always told me I was and always would be the love of your life...I am sorry I thought we had a lifetime ahead of ourselves when we took a break to figure out our next journey in life I would have never fathomed it would be our last. You were an amazing man an I will never forget you or the true love you gave me. You taught me what true love was. I love you to the moon and back, my beautiful, precious Anthony John. Until we meet again Rest Easy My Love!
