“ Dear Ann Marie and family,

Vickie just shared the news of the loss of your mother. I read her obituary...what a precious soul. I wanted you to know that I am praying for you during this difficult time. We have their legacy to follow, special memories and special times. My mother passed away when she was 67. A friend shared with me when my mom died a note that said to give that love of our mothers to our children. I know that you will. Blessings to you and your family. Rely on the peace of knowing that we will be reunited with them again...what a glorious day that will be. Love in Christ, Brenda Sommer##imported-begin##Brenda Sommer##imported-end##

“ From the moment we met Barbara, she welcomed us with her beautiful smile. Even though she only spent a short time in florida she was a great incouragement for my own Moms illness. And her sons especially warm heart and caring that he showed towards her. My Mom and I will always cherish that time until one day when they will both meet again. Our blessings go to the family and their son and daughter that really showed what family was all about.

“ Vic,

Please know that you and your entire family are in my prayers during this difficult time. Because I am so intimately familiar with the disease, I can empathize on many different levels. Just know that your mom is no longer a prisoner to her own body...and that in and of itself is a celebration! Give me a call should you need to talk. 770-595-5576

My favorite scripture verse is 1 Cornithians 10:13- perhaps it too will help you find some comfort during this time!
