“ I just wanted to share something about our teenage years. The neighborhood hood guys that lived in the area would always come over and hang out with my brother Frank. I was always tagging along like the tomboy I was wanting to be a part of the stuff these guys did. Like riding four wheelers, horseback riding, snowmobiles, fishing, playing tag in the barn, building forts in the barn, swinging from the rope, running down the beams, jumping into loose straw from the hayloft, swimming in the pond, skipping rocks, going to the pits, cruzing the back roads drinking, mud bogging, getting into fist fights and always getting Rob when things got bad so it would get "takin care of"... Benji was a great guy who always seemed to make you laugh with some smart comment or gesture. I will miss him and all these memories will be with us all till we meet again... love you Ben...##imported-begin##Melissa Hughes##imported-end##

I want to say thanks again for all of those who made it to the funeral, and all of those who couldn't that called, sent flowers or cards...
