“ Aunt Mary Ellen, Beth, and girls...
Renee called me Wed. night and told me Brad had passed away. I was in complete shock. Sue Ellen had told me of his diagnosis at Aunt Goldie's viewing. If we would have known, we would have came to the funeral. We were actually in Michigan last weekend, but the other side of the state.
You are all in my prayers. I know that only God will be able to give you peace that passes all understanding.
Love... Robin, Tom, and Kids...##imported-begin##Robin##imported-end##

“ Dearest Beth, My heart goes out to you in the loss of Brad. It seems life was just beginning to give you both time together doing the things you most enjoyed. I pray for you and especially that Brad has found the deepest peace and contentment in The Lord. God has called him home and even though you will miss him always, we all our born longing to return to The Father for an eternity of God's beautiful and abiding love. With my deepest sympathy and caring thoughts and prayers, your friend from The Villages, Audrey Smith##imported-begin##Audrey E. Smith##imported-end##

“ BethAnn, Traci and Darci

It seems a lifetime and so long ago since Bradley was first introduced to me and since he has become like a part of our family. Carrie and Curt only know him by "UNCLE BRAD". We all hold so many wonderful memories together that we could fill a book and it was so hard to hold myself back when asked by the minister to come up and share with everyone a few words. This last past few days have been so wonderful to share some of our past stories with both Carrie and Curt and hearing it all from now the voices of them being adults. It meant so much for Curt to have been able to be here with us and for all of them now to meet up again as adults to share the short time together. Brad will always be in our hearts and he will be truly missed... Until we can soon talk... Hugs and kisses and to all of you and your family and friends and esp. to your mother Vonda and Brad's mother you are in my thoughts and prayers... I'm here for you if there is anything I can do.##imported-begin##Kathy VanPelt##imported-end##
