“ To The Theel family, please accept our deepest sympathy over the loss of your mother. Regardless of how many time a person we know dies we can never get use to it because death is not natural, Almighty God made us to live not to die. Jesus promise that one day death, pain sorrow will be gone forever (Revelation 21:3-5). Not only will he bring these things about but he promise that our dead loved ones will come back to life by means of the resurrection. Acts 24:15 says "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". and your mother Mrs. Theel will no doubt be part of those that will have an opportunity to live forever. ##imported-begin## Donald Phillips ##imported-end##

“ Fred and Doris, I'm sorry that I couldn't make it to your moms funeral. I would have liked to see her one last time..and both of you too. I don't think I've seen your mom since sometime in the '50s. I always thought of her as being a gentle caring lady. I'm sure she was a good mom and Grandmother too. As most people say, she's in a much better place now. I'm sure thats true. God bless both of you and your familie's, Bob Maley ##imported-begin## Bob Maley ##imported-end##

“ To my dear cousins and their families. Our sincerest and deepest heartfelt sympathies for you all. Aunt Cornelila was very close to us all. I know if Martin were here he would say the same; we both enjoyed so much our visits with her reminiscing with her of both Adrian and Horn family histories. Not only was she my dear aunt, but she was also my god-mother, and my Sunday School teacher. But while we grieve for the temporary loss of her company, we know that, though faith in her Lord Jesus, her soul is in heaven now holding a great reunion with grandma and grandpa, with Aunt Alice and my dad and with that little sister that she has seen since 1916; but especially the unimaginable joy she must be having in the very presence of our Triune God. How I wish I could be there to say "Good-bye" with you. Surely David was so right when he said "Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the House of the Lord FOREVER!"###imported-begin##Bob and Karen Adrian##imported-end##
