“ *I was very sorry to learn of the untimely death of Dave. We went to high school together and he took me to our senior prom. What a nice man he was! All of the graduates of the class of 66 remember what a kind, fun loving man he was. He was missed at our 40th Reunion in June of '06.
Our thoughts and prayers are with his family.*

“ So sorry to hear the news. Of course my boys, Jamey and Jason remember "Big Dave" very well and all the time spent with David and Eddie while they grew up. Everybody remembers the old days. Thinking of all of you and remembering the best of everything. God bless and Love, The Holton Family##imported-begin##Norman and Tamara Holton##imported-end##

“ I am writing this for my mom Charlotte Schneider.
The John Laya P&H shop used to be across Morang from my grandparents house, and my dad and John Laya used to bowl on team together and hang out and play cards at the Cadiux Cafe My mom remembers David up at the shop. We are so very sorry to hear of Davids untimely death. My brother-Larry Jr was a Local 98 plumber for 33 years, the son of Larry Schneider Sr (late) also a local#98 plumber for 33 yrs too both worked with John and David as plumbers. He will be missed!
Please give Yvonne our love and condolences,

Charlotte Schneider
