“ You will be so missed. I know your with Mom, Lucy and Mark. I think of all the fun we used to have as kids and it's just so hard to beleive your gone. I will always cherish the times we use to walk over to the pet store and how gentle you always were with the animals. Just so many good memories while I lived up north. Just grateful that I could see you one last time. Hold the gates open for me. You will never be forgotten, always in my heart until I see you again. I love you brother.
