“ We have been out of state and just arrived home early this morning. I was looking up Mary Bricker's obituary and saw Donna's. I was shocked and so sorry to hear about it and to not have been here to attend the visitation or funeral. I loved her and appreciated her. I will miss our conversations at the grandkid's sporting events. She will be missed. Hold your memories close to your hearts.##imported-begin##Joni French##imported-end##

“ To all of Donna's family, I am so sorry for your lost. I am still lost for words as this was very unexpected. Everytime Donna came in to the office, I was told of all of the events that were going on with your family and saw many, many pictures. She talked alot of her grandchildren and very proud of all of them. She will be greatly missed!##imported-begin##Melissa at Dr. Dambacher's office##imported-end##
