“ Doug was great to work with in the trades building Detroit. His humor and kindness will be missed.

“ Dear Esther, Anna Marie, Doug, Lisa and families, Word has reached us here in Florida of Doug's passing. Our thoughts and our prayers go out to you at this time of grief and great loss. We know you take great consolation from your faith and the belief in life after death. Doug was a very good friend and neighbor. He didn't even get mad when I tore up his corn field! It was the end of my farming career. He will be missed by many and can not be replaced! Hope to see you in the Spring when we return to Memphis to attend Mass at Holy Family Parish.
