“ Edith and I attend the same church, and she and many of family members are my friends. Edith may have been in her senior years, but always seemed to be on her toes, and was very easy to talk with. I hope to grow old just like her and hope to have the same bright, kind and lively spirit. She believed that Jesus Christ died for her, and knew in her heart that she would one day meet the great I AM. I know someday I will see Edith again, and I just keep that anticipation until that day. Will miss you at Church!###imported-

“ Dear Schweiger Family,
I would like to extend my sincere condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted personally, we share the pain of losing a loved one in death. May you find comfort in God's loving invitation to "throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you" (1 Peter 5;7), for he is "near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) The hope of seeing our loved ones again under peaceful conditions right here on earth are promised to us at John 5;28,29 and Rev. 21;3,4. Please read and find strength in the resurrection promise during this difficult time and the days to come. Take care,##imported-begin##valerie thompson##imported-end##
