“ Dear Jeanne, Jim and Tim,
I am sad to hear that Aunt Bert has passed away. I know that she was very proud of her children. That pride was justified. I have been reflecting on my many experiences with her through the years. I recall the time when she was my Sunday School teacher. I am envisioning times spent together at your home in Pontiac and, of course the many family gatherings. I was looking through some pictures recently. One that stands out in my mind is of her with Jeanne and Jim in front of Grandma & Grandpa's house on an Easter Sunday. There were so many times that she offered me comfort and advice. I, too will miss her. I wish I could be there with you at this time. Although I cannot join you in remembering and honoring her life I will be thinking of you and her. My love and prayers are with you.
