“ One of my best memories with Aunt Frances is ...when Uncle Vic and Aunt Frances would take all of us kids fishing near a creek south of Yale...We really never caught much, other than a few sun fish...but could not wait to have supper....Aunt Frances would take some tough round steak put it in some tin foil with salt, pepper and onions, and sliced potatoes...throw it on the camp fire! You could smell it all the way down stream... then she would yell; come on and eat....we would run as fast as we could to get there...The tough round steak was so juicy and tender...A meal fit for a King! The good ole' days! Love you all!!!! <3
