Frances Irene DesJardins-Katrinic

85, of Jacksonville, Florida, formally of Croswell, passed away Monday, August 20, 2007 at Mercy Hospital after a brief illness.

Frances was born January 15, 1922 in Neepawa, Manitoba, Canada, the daughter of the late Peter and Jean (Mason) Buchannan.

She and Lee Edmond DesJardins were married in Croswell, Michigan December, 1939. They enjoyed 45 years of marriage before his passing in 1984. Frances then married Joseph Katrinic in 1993 in Yale.

Frances attended Trinity Missionary Church in Yale. She was a big fan of Detroit Tigers Baseball, enjoyed knitting, games, and even made jewelry in her spare time. She also enjoyed traveling and gardening when she was able. Of all her hobbies and likes, she loved her family the most, especially her grand-family.

Surviving in addition to her husband Joseph of 14 years are five daughters and sons-in-law, Sharon (Dick) DesJardins-Bodley of Lexington, Gail (Bruce) Gardner of Yale, Terry (Ray) Partlo of Oxford, Bonnie (Leon) Borst of Croswell, and Sheila (Donald) Miller of Saline; son, Larry DesJardins of Port Huron; 16 grandchildren; 35 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren; as well as many nieces, nephews and friends.

Frances is preceded in death by her parents; a son, Gary and wife Doris DesJardins; and sisters Dorothy Penn and Gladys Sly.

Her family honors the memory of Frances and invite you to attend memorial services Thursday, 11:00 a.m. at Trinity Missionary Church, Yale. Rev. Neil Davis, pastor of Trinity Missionary Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Fremont Cemetery, Fremont Township.

Arrangements are by Kaatz Funeral Directors, Yale.

Memorials are suggested to Quota Club of Port Huron.
