“ Frank was truly a very happy and interesting gentleman, he was always so interesting to be around. You were never sure what he would come up with. There was no doubt though as to how much he loved his wife and children. His family was his life and I am sure he leaves many great memories with you all.
He is only a breath away and always lives with you in your heart and mind. Close your eyes and you can feel him.
Much love and prayers
