“ There comes a time in our life in which we must do what seems to be the impossible. Saying good bye to my Grandfather is one of them. Today we have come to celebrate the life of my Grandfather Harold H. Wedyke and the impact he has had on all of us.

We all have many wonderful memories of my grandfather that we hold close to us. This is what makes him such a great man. He was able to touch each and every one of us in some sort of way.

For me I remember a man that treasured the simple things in life. He enjoyed life, nature and all it has to offer us. He lived life to the fullest engaging in hobbies that gave him the most satisfaction. I remember playing in his race car that he stored in the backyard and how cool it was. After seeing pictures of the Ford Mustang he bought for my mother at the age of 16 it was only a matter of time before I would own one of my own.

Watching Grandpa Raise chickens and helping him gather the egg's was just another fun filled day at Grandma and Grandpa's house. He was always working in the garden and playing on those tractors. I recall painting the blue tractor with him and going for many of hair rides with the brother and cousins.

The funny thing is the old farm in Applegate and the big garden in Emmett really brought the family together. We all pitched in on the work and had a great time doing so. This created memories that will last for generations to come. I am just grateful to have shared in so many of them it would take hours to tell you even half.

I could have spoke on other accomplishments in Grandpa's life such as employment, house, cars and so on but I have decided to focus on the greatest accomplishment of all; family. A family man he was, always willing to share ideas, education and creativity. He leaves behind a great family with fond memories.

Gone? Yes!

*Forgotten? Never!
Remember? Always!*

We love you Grandpa. May peace be with you as you enter gates and gardens of heaven.
