“ Mr. & Mrs. Morgan were loyal Schmidt & Schwark IGA customers for many years. I came to know many people at IGA, being employed there for 22 years. Every week, I would be able to either see Shaun or hear the comings and goings of him. They were so very proud of him. I was fortunate enough to speak to Mrs. Morgan in the Richmond Kroger store in the fall, she still remembered that I was someone she recognized. That made me feel so good! And to think that little Shaun is now a grownup himself!
I will remember Mr. Morgan sitting on the bench at IGA, stratching instant lottery tickets off as he waited for his bride to finish the weekly shopping. They were both special people, and I have fond memories of them that will never die. My deepest sympathy to the entire family.
