“ The Schiffelbine's were friends of my parents so I knew Ila pretty much my whole life. I had also worked with her at Spence's restaurant 'Aubrey's Supperclub' for awhile. She was always smiling and such a kind person. RIP dear Ila.

“ I work at Wadhams Creek assisted living facility. I worked with Ila for 2 1/2 years. She was very sweet! When I first met Ila, she couldn't remember my name. When I would tell her my name Helen, she would say "I have an aunt Helen". I told her whenever she would forget my name I would tell her she has an aunt with my name and she would say "Helen"! I would say That's right! Eventually she remembered my name and never forgot it. Ila would also tell me "I'm going to take you home with me!" when I was assisting her. I will miss her!
