

Jacob Alan Farrow

September 16, 1985 - September 2, 2014

Jacob Alan Farrow

28, of Roseville, died very unexpectedly at his home Tuesday September 2, 2014.

He is the son of Robie Farrow of Manistee and Brenda Moore Farrow of Macomb, born in Mt. Clemens September 16, 1985.

Jacob served his country in the U.S. Navy for six years with the rank of HT2.

He served on board the USS Curtis Wilbur DG54HP in Yokosuka, Japan.

He was employed at MPW Industrial Service, Chesterfield Twp. For seven months. He worked part-time at Oakland County Sheriff Marine Division.

He is survived in addition to his parents Robie and Brenda by a sister Amanda Farrow of Warren and brother Jeremy Farrow of New Haven; his half sister Crystal Farrow of Port Huron and grandparents Judy Verlinde of Richmond and Byron Moore of Milford; his most trusted friend Kevin Valentia of New Haven and several aunts, uncles, godmother Lori Moore, nieces and nephews cousins and friends.

Preceding his death were grandparents Harry and Bernie Farrow and godfather Don Verlinde.

His family honors the memory of Jacob and invite you to visit and share memories Tues 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Kaatz Funeral Directors, Richmond. A military funeral with interment by U.S. Navy and chaplain Mike Goddard will be 11:00 a.m. Wednesday at Great Lakes Veteran Cemetery, Holly.

Memorials are suggested to “Wishes of the Family”.

“ Jake was really funny whenever I seen him. I'll always remember his sense of humor, the kidding way he flirted, and the quiet but alternate talkative way he was. All around Jake was fun and always nice to me. I didn't have the honor to know him well, but he'll never be forgotten.
