

James Max Riddle, Jr.

January 13, 1967 - April 15, 2011

James Max Riddle Jr.

44, of Belfair, WA, died very unexpectedly Friday, April 15, 2011, at Mt. Clemens Regional Medical Center, Mt. Clemens.

He was born January 13, 1967 in Mt. Clemens, the son of James Sr. and Sandra (Warwick) Riddle.

His marriage to Sheri Kingery Riddle was July 2, 1988 in Bremerton, Washington and later solemnized in the LDS Seattle Temple.

James served his country with the United States Navy from 1986 to 1991 and with the Naval Reserves until 1996. He was employed as a Federal Ship Safety Inspector at the Puget Sound Naval Yard, WA.

James was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He was former troop leader for the Boy Scouts of America Troop #1520 in Belfair and enjoyed woodcarving, reading and spending time with his wife and children.

Surviving in addition to his wife Sheri of 22 years are their two children Addison Bailey and James Marshall Riddle; parents, Sandra and James Sr. of Richmond; mother and father-in-law, Dana and Frederick Kingery; sister and brother-in-law, Laura and John Falecki; five brothers and sister-in law; grandmother, Evelyn McGuire of Richmond and several nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

His family honors the memory of James and invites you to visit and share memories Wednesday 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Kaatz Funeral Directors,

Richmond. Burial with military honors will be Thursday 10:30 a.m. at Great Lakes National Cemetery, Holly, followed by funeral services at 1:00 p.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, St. Clair. Bishop Dan Willmott will officiate.

As an expression of sympathy, memorial contributions may be sent for Belfair Boy Scouts of America Troop #1520 care of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Bishop Thomas M Abplanalp, Belfair Ward, PO Box 2362 Belfair, WA 98528-2362.
