“ Job 14:1-2

*Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.
He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down : he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not*

Mike Dyer, my friend. Mike, I'm going to grieve for you for a long long time. Mike was a true friend, quick to lend a helping hand. He was not a greedy person and would give you the shirt off his back without asking for anything in return. Mike was a man's man. He loved the outdoors- camping, hunting and fishing.

Mike was not afraid of adversity or challenges, deciding what he wonted to do and giving it his best shot. Usually underfunded and without the proper support to succeed he would go forth giving it his all.

Mike never understood why someone would purposely do something to hurt someone. Mike was sensitive towards his friends and loved ones, desiring the same love he gave back from them and being hurt when it wasn't given.

I think all in this world failed Mike; everyone thinking he knew what was best for him and all Mike ever wanted was love and support.

Job 6:27 Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

I would gladly give all I have to have you back, Mike.
