“ My wife and I want to offer our condolences to you, Jackie and the family, for the loss of a dear loved one. As the Bible says, death is truly an enemy that causes pain (1Corinthians 15:26). But that scripture also encourages us with the fact that God will eliminate it. I have had the very nice opportunity to talk with your dad and your family. We will keep your family in our prayers.

“ Anybody who knew John will miss his insight and sense of humor. John was a loving husband, father and grandfather. He believed that spending time with his children and grandchildren was one of the most important things he could do in life. With the help of his wife, daughters and grandchildren, who were there by his side, he was able to cope with his illness the last few years and keep his sense of humor through it all. We will miss sharing those memories of the camping trips and vacations. Untill we meet again!
