“ I had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Powell as a teen while working for Mr. and Mrs. Powell for a summer on the farm. Truly a very nice and warm lady with a kind heart. My condolences to the entire Powell family during the loss of a very fine lady.##imported-begin##Charlie Reppert##imported-end##

“ I worked for Bob and June on their farm on Yale Rd back in the late seventies, and although I haven't seen June in over 30 years, I still fondly remember the kindness and patience of June when I was in their employ. When I was on the farm, she would work right along side with me feeding and cleaning pens in the barn and the sow house, and she always fed me when I was there working. Bob, I wish you and your family my deepest sympathies for your loss
