“ Dear Sue, Craig, Ray, Joan and families,
We know how you will miss you dear mother and grandmother but we also know that she is joyfully loving her new home with her beloved husband and her Lord. Our prayers are with you and may the blessings of Easter Sunday fill your hearts.

Much love,
Bruce and sandy

“ Sue, I just wanted to let you know I'm thinking of you today at the home-going of your mother. My condolences to you and your entire family, as well as to all the Palmetteer brothers and their families who are Brown City Camp friends of mine! My heart goes out to you all as we celebrate Marian's life and hope in the Lord. "Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer." (Romans 12:12).

“ I have many great memories of cousin Marian and husband Edsel Gardner. They were both truly wonderful people who loved the Lord and life... They will be missed... But, it is NOT good bye... It is "we will see you later" in glory... We will be in prayer for our many other cousins as well... God bless you all. Cousin Brian Ake
