

Marie Bernice Macker

February 15, 1926 - May 23, 2008

Marie Bernice Macker

82, of Memphis, entered into eternal life Friday morning May 23, 2008 at home following a brief illness.

She was born February 15, 1926 in Bingham Twp., Huron County, the daughter of the late Joseph and Mamie Deachin Warchuck.

Her marriage to William Raymond Macker Sr. was May 20, 1943 in Detroit. William died May 15, 2004.

Chrysler Corporation employed Marie for 30 years until her retirement in 1982. She was a parishioner of Holy Family Parish-All Saints, Memphis, and a member of the Berville Lions Club. She enjoyed flower gardening, crocheting, reading, bowling, golfing, and was active in church activities.

Surviving are six children, Ron and Gloria of Minden City, Gary of Brown City, William Jr. and Ruth of Port Huron, Cheryl Ann and Michael Savage of Allenton, Susan K. Macker and life partner Donna DuBlank of Casco Township, and Matthew P. and Linda of Capac; seventeen grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren; daughter-in-law Michelle Macker of Berville and several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Her sons Edward M. and Mark Macker, brothers Richard, Marvin and Bernard, and daughter-in-law, Sharron Macker preceded her in death.

Her family honors the memory of Marie and invite you to visit and share Sunday 2:00 to 8:00 p.m. with rosary devotions at 7:00 p.m. at Kaatz Funeral

Directors, Richmond.

Rite of Christian Burial will be 11:00 a.m. Tuesday at Holy Family Parish-All Saints, Memphis, with 10:00 a.m. visiting. Fr. Joseph Horn, pastor, will officiate. Committal will be in Memphis Cemetery, Memphis.

Memorials are suggested to "Wishes of the Family".
