

Marilyn June Ciupy

March 8, 1933 - March 16, 2014

Marilyn June Ciupy

81, of Yale, passed away Sunday, March 16, 2014, at her home.

She was born in Ferndale, March 8, 1933, the daughter of the late Raymond and Cecelia (Lewandowski) Caldwell.

Her marriage to Edward Ciupy was March 19, 1957 in Las Vegas. The couple enjoyed 34 years of marriage before Edward's death in 1991.

Marilyn was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Yale. She worked at General Motors Warren Tech Center for 38 years before her retirement in 1992. Marilyn enjoyed traveling with her husband and then her sister around the world, including Hawaii, Europe, Canada and Alaska. She loved spending time with her daughter and especially her granddaughter who she adored.

Marilyn simply loved life.

Surviving are a daughter and son-in-law, Phyllis and Mark Walter of Brockway Township and a granddaughter, Kaitlyn Walter; two sisters, Eleanor (Donald) Saxon of Rochester Hills and Lorraine Pitus of Farmington Hills; four nieces and nephews, Janet Saxon, Michael (Nancy) Saxon, Dr. Kathy (Michael Clow) Pitus and Theresa (Michael) Young, as well as many friends.

The family honors the memory of Marilyn and invite you to attend memorial service 11:00 a.m. Wednesday with 10:00 a.m. visiting at the First Presbyterian Church, Yale. Rev. James Offrink will officiate. Cremation arrangements provided by Kaatz Funeral Directors, Yale.

Memorials are suggested to “Wishes of the Family.”
