“Walt, Mary Ann and Families:

I am sorry that I cannot be there to show my respect for your mother, such a loving, warm, happy lady, who I will always remember as being welcoming and loving to anyone who came through her door.

I remember the summer Bill and I worked to ready the yard and grounds in the "third cottage" at the lake. She was so gracious to me after I pulled out all the bulb-type plants along the fence-line that I thought were weeds! We laughed at how the webbing on all the lawn furniture 'stretched out' after being sat in; Bill had worked his tail off pulling and tightening the webbing when he re-strung the chairs, but the stuff just stretched anyway.

Your mom had the kindness Bill needed, and yet could 'tell it like it is' to him without being critical as his mother often was. He certainly had a soft-spot in his heart for his Aunt Bert.

My family and I send our sincere sympathy, knowing all along how difficult these last years have been for you watching your mom suffer with such a wicked affliction. She is in a much better place and you can trust (and I know this from personal happenings) that she will be looking down on all of you, your children and grandchildren, watching over all like a beautiful angel, guiding all of you, and keeping you safe.

God Bless.
