February 8, 1929 - February 18, 2010

Robert F. Harmer

Robert Floyd Harmer, 81, of Yale, passed away unexpectedly February 18, 2010, at Port Huron Hospital.

Bob was born February 8, 1929, in Flint, Michigan to the late Floyd and Beryl (Turk) Harmer. He married Marguerite

Duquette on July 8, 1949, and was a lifelong Yale area resident.

In the early years of his career, Bob worked for many area newspapers. He was a 50 year member of the International Typographical Union and retired from the Macomb Daily in 1993 after working as a Journeyman Printer in classifieds for 34 years.

Upon his retirement, Bob enjoyed meeting the guys for coffee at both CJ's and Wally World. He was a brilliant mechanic; there wasn't a motor made that he couldn't fix, often fabricating his own parts. He enjoyed learning and continued to educate himself on earth science, history and current trends in mechanics. He was an avid deer hunter, fisherman, and motorcycle enthusiast.

Bob is survived by his wife of 60 years, Marguerite, children Renne (Cliff) Hastings of Croswell, Jon (Vicky) of Mancelona, Rob (Cheryl) of Waterford, and Penny (Ron) Simpson of Burtchville; grandchildren, Tony (Jill), Pam (Josh), Tonya, Rhonda (TJ), Phillip (Jenny), Adam, Alan, Marie, Danielle (Tim) and Billy; seven great-grandchildren, brothers Rolland (Beverly) and Ramon (Louise) and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his son Micheal, grandsons Christopher and David, and brother Ronald.

His family honors the memory of Bob and invites you to visit and share memories Sunday 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. at Kaatz Funeral Directors, Yale. Funeral services will be 11:00 a.m. Monday with 10:00 a.m. visitation. Rev. Debra Brown, pastor of Cole United Methodist Church, Brockway, will officiate.
