

Ronald Frederick Campau

October 18, 1945 - May 8, 2014

Ronald Frederick Campau

68, of Lenox Township, died Thursday morning May 8, 2014 at home following a courageous battle against cancer.

He was born October 18, 1945 in Mt. Clemens, the son of late Norvel and Pearl (Champine) Campau.

His marriage to his companion of nearly 12 years Sharon Schilling-Thompson was May 2, 2014 in Mt. Clemens.

Since childhood Ronald operated and later owned his family farm RC Organic Farms in Lenox Township, and was deeply committed to sustainable agriculture.

Ron was known for his quick wit, wry smile and wonderful sense of humor. The stories he told with his wonderfully distinctive voice will always be fondly remembered. He was dedicated to his friends and family and was loved by all who knew him.

Surviving in addition to his wife Sharon are four children, Jacqueline (Steve) Good of Sandusky, Rhonda (William) Cole of Port Huron, Robert (Kathleen) of Casco and Nicholas (Sarah) of Allen Park, four stepchildren Elisabeth (Nathan) Richmond of Royal Oak, Emily (Brad) Metzger of Snover, Sarah (Andrew) Forgue of Campbell, CA and Andrew (Brittany) Thompson of Ypsilanti; 10 grandchildren, 5 step grandchildren; brother and sister-in-law John and Kristine Campau of Memphis, sister, Ida Kethe of Lenox; mother of his children, Carol Campau of Richmond and several nieces, nephews and friends.

His sister, Donna Ottenbacher preceded him death.

The family honors the memory of Ronald and invite you to visit and share memories Saturday, May 10 from 12:00pm-5:00pm at Kaatz Funeral Directors, Richmond. Funeral Services will be 11:00am on Monday, May 12 with 10:00am visiting. Burial will be in Richmond Cemetery, Richmond.

Memorials are suggested to "Wishes of the Family."
