“ I met Scott and became his friend while working at Venture Industries. Scott was there many times when I needed help, which he always provided even when inconvenienced. His generosity was always an obstacle when I attempted to pay him for his work. I'll always remember how excited he was when he told me he was going to be a father. A wonderful, generous, caring person who's passing has left a deep void in the lives of his friends and family. I will remember Scott, Jennifer and Devin in my prayers. I'll really miss Scott.##imported-begin##Michael A Safford##imported-end##

“ I had the opportunity to work along side Scott for about six months at Cadence. I quickly learned that Scott was the person whom most of the others would go to when a they were having trouble resolving an issue. He was one of the more knowledgeable/skilled members of the group; I can still remember a few different occasions when I went to him for help, no matter how busy he was, he was always willing to give me a hand. May his family know that my thoughts, prayers, and deepest sympathies are with them now, and throughout the grieving process. Scott was a great person and will be missed by many.##imported-begin##Frank Ciavarro##imported-end##

“ Scott will surely be missed by all his family members and friends and will always be in our hearts. His sense of humor always lit up a room and made people laugh. Our family has many fond memories of times spent with him. I remember the one time he was messing around with Uncle Brad and he stepped on the end of Scott's sock and just the toe part got ripped off - you had to be there to appreciate it. And then there was a summer BBQ at our home; Scott and Chris brought their high-powered water guns and they thought they had us, until the garden hose got turned on. We have many fond memories of Scott and he will be remembered in our hearts forever. Jennifer, please know that you have many family members and friends to lean on and help you and Devin through this difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Uncle Brad & Aunt Lynn##imported-end##

“ I cannot think of any words that come close to describing the sorrow and disbelief over the loss of such an awesome person. I had the privilege to have worked with Scott for many years at Venture and then Cadence and he was truly a great human being. Scott possessed a great sense of humor and the wonderful quality of being unselfish with others. He was always sharing his knowledge and always offering to help his peers in any way. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. I will forever remember Scott.###imported-begin##Rubens Perdomo###imported-end##

“ Scott and I were friends and business partners for many years. I always knew him to be a kind, caring person who would do anything to help out a friend. I met Scott when I was a much younger man, and I learned a lot from him over the years. He was part of shaping me into who I am today. His passing is tragic and pains me greatly. My heart goes out to Jen and Devin. There will still be a lot of pain before the healing can begin, but just know that you have friends out here who love and support you.##imported-begin##Matt Dunn##imported-end##

“ I worked with Scott through several companies. GifuSeki, Venture and Cadence. I am still in shock over news of his passing. Scott was a good friend, a caring co-worker, and an overall decent and moral man. Many are the times he helped me at work going above and beyond the call. I remember him for his bright smile, warm heart, and kind demeanor. My deep felt sympathies to his family. I know he is in a better place now, but I will miss him terribly from this place.###imported-begin##Brendan Kowalski###imported-end##

“ Dear Jennifer,

Please accept my sincerest condolences on the loss of your husband, Scott. No amount of words can convey the despair you must feel at this moment, especially since you came to my house for assurances on the future of your family. You have a exceptional little boy in Devin, and, even though it may not help to ease the pain, know that you will see Scott again and that he will be with you, mentally and spiritually, forever. God will see you through this tragic time of your life. It may not seem like it, but He will. And so will I through my prayers. If you should ever need a shoulder to cry on and or someone to scream your frustrations at, call me. I will help in any way I can. God bless you and Devin.

*My deepest symphathy,

“ Scott was a great friend and like a big brother to me. Scott worked with my dad, and I still remember the first time I meet him. My friend Matt and I going over to Scott's apartment to help work on his computer was probably when our friendship started. From then on Scott wanted to learn everything Matt and I knew about computer, and once Scott bought his house in Roseville we were over there about every other weekend having our LAN parties, working on and building computers. Scott had employed me to help with his demolition and dry wall work in the upstairs and for probably 3 years I had a lawn cutting job at his house. Scott was always there to help any of us out, and also pretty much let us have free reign on his house. If ever any of us were to need anything, Scott was there. There have been many projects that I worked on with Scott and none of them that I will ever forget. Scott was a great man and a big brother to me. Even though I have not seen him in a while, he will be missed greatly. Miss you Scott###imported-begin###John Leo Podlaseck II###imported-end##

“ In every sense of the word J.R. Was my brother, he was there for me with every birth, and every problem, as I was for him. He signed his emails your little bro. I loved him more than anyone could know, and would have done anything for him. I was there the first day he wanted to ask Jen out and didn't have wine glasses, which was a must because this girl was special! I remember giving him my chritmas glasses. Scott I love you, I will always love you. Jen & Devin no matter what you do or where you go we will be there for you. I will not say to call me if you need me, I will call. Because it is important to not let the responsiblity fall on your shoulders. We love you. JR was the most kind, special man that wore his heart on his sleeve. He is missed greatly by his three adpoted niece and nephews, who he helped raise when their dad could not be there, the told me that he was their second dad. We are all heart broken over his passing. You are in our thoughts. We are on our way and will be there for as long as you need us.##imported-begin##wendy Dennis##imported-end##

“ Scott or as we called him "JR" was the best friend you could hope for. He was there through so much in my life the birth of my 3 kids Nick Maddy and Jake, he was a friend to my wife Wendy as well. I hope he knew what he meant to me and my family. I could always count on Scott for anything. He was more than just a friend to me and my family, he was like a brother, to me and Wendy and an uncle to Nick Maddy and Jake. Scott (JR) will be missed more than I can put to words. there will always be a hole in my life without him.
