“ Mrs. G was my hero. No better mentor was ever had. Her will to live, and beat the Big C soundly was amazing. Her faith and her love for her family as well as their love for her certainly supported her strength. Such an inspiration. Would that I could go out on my own terms - as I believe she did. She leaves a large hole in so many hearts, but I rejoice in knowing that she is at peace and finally, pain free. We are blessed for having had her in our lives. Our love to all her family but most especially "Precious Pete" and his family. Love, Selise and Jim xoxoxo

“ Sue, just so you know Miles was a lot like me. You can't get away, even in Heaven. I'm going to tell him to stuff tissue in your shoes, hide your purse, flip up your window wipers when we know you can't reach them, take your cookies, and most of all tape your coat sleeves closed. I will cherish all the memories and stories you told me, and will share them when I can. I teased you about having 13 kids, when I knew it was only 8. I always felt like number 9. I'm sorry that time here is done, but job well done. Enjoy Heaven, and give my son a hug...

“ Although it’s difficult today to see beyond the sorrow,
May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow. I am sorry for your loss. Jill, hang in there and know that you are on my mind.... Time never takes away the pain... But life does slowly become more bearable. Think only of all of the wonderful times spent with your Mom, my heart breaks for you.... Stay strong..

“ My deepest condolences to the Goddeeris family. I have such fond memories as a kid, spending time with your family. Those times were often a relief for myself when we were going through some rough patches in the late seventies. Peace be with you.

“ I once read this quote. Courage dosen't always ROAR! Sometimes its that small voice in your head at the end of the day that says I'll try harder tomorrow. Sue most definetly ROARED!!!! My thoughts and prayers are with your family XOXOXO
