“ Tom was a gentle person when I knew him in NHHS. In a era of chaos with so much on the horizon, Viet Nam, riots, the drug culture, there were a few moments that stand out - Tom at a dance (someone's house party) quiet, just dancing, never yelling. Laughing not too loudly, he was there but did not need to make his presence known.

God bless you and your family, Tom - keep you all in His tender mercy through eternity. Requiescat in Pacem

“ My very first memory of Tom is of him crusing New Haven in the "Chevy Too Little", IN FIRST GEAR. Over the years we have made many more memories. I'm very thankful that I was a part of Tom's life and he a part of mine.

Tom will be missed greatly by all who knew him.

“ It's sad to hear Tom has left us. A classmate during our years at New Haven, who was always a great guy, and kept his many friends throughout his life. How lucky we are to have the memories of Tom.
But how sad we are he's left us. My prayers are with all of the Vennards. Tom will be remembered by all he knew.###imported-
