Brother Timothy Head 61, of Greenwood Township passed away recently after dealing with cancer issues the last two years.

Timothy's lifetime occupation was a power lineman. He was most proud of the elected title of Executive Board member and Appointed Positions of Assistant Business Manager and other non-elected positions needed to be occupied by the membership. With his help and other concerned labor leaders. The local was able to enroll a number of young able-bodied men from this area to mold them into a qualified journeyman lineman.

Beside leaving his beloved wife Virginia, knowing her for over 36 years, are children, Oscar, Ofilia (Rubin), Cerelia (Jim), Vincente (Kelly); grandchildren, Andrew, Courtney, Brooky, Wayne Carosella and sister-in-law, Amelia Garcia. Timothy and Virginia moved upon a number of alfalfa fields in the late nineties building a two-story farmhouse of their dreams.
