“ Tim, there isn't a day that goes by that I don't think of you and the pain you must felt. I know the emptiness you must have been feeling. Not knowing where to turn or what to do. Trust me, they will get what is do them, both of them. God has a plan for them. I know that you will not be able to see it and I don't know if I will ever see it but it will happen. It isn't over yet justice will be served for you I PROMISE. I will see you again someday soon. Justice will be served!##imported-begin##lucy##imported-end##

“ Words can't express how sad I am about this tragic loss. I feel honored to say I have known Tim, Deb and Lori for many years since we first met at Maranatha church then went to high school together. This family has always held a special place in my heart and always will. I loved Tim's sarcastic sense of humor. He had a great outlook on life and was just such a genuine person. I'm praying for God to hold you in His arms and give you peace that you will reunite with Tim and David again someday. Love you!###imported-begin###Leslie Chopra (Moore)###imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of this sad news. I have worked with Tim on different jobs over the past few years. He was an excellent Millwright and I'm sure he was an exceptional father. Tim had photos of his family in the top of his tool box, and when I asked him about his family the look on his face said it all. Tim will be greatly missed. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Bryan Caruso (1102)##imported-end##

“ So sad to hear of Tim's passing. He was such a wonderful friend to our son and all the kids in the neighborhood that played basketball at his home when he lived in Davison. We are all in shock, you could see how much he loved Josie and Luke when he would take them for a walk around the neighborhood and we are sure he was the same with Gracie. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.##imported-begin##Marvin, Connie, Erik Riley##imported-end##

“ Tim is my brother. I am so sad for his kids that they will not have their Daddy there to witness them as they grow. I hope they have his sense of humor. He had the best smile.
My Dad wrote a poem when my brother, David passed away and it is very fitting for Tim and the pain he was in:
Now you are free
Run, my son...run
Run valiant warrior...
You have fought the good fight
Run with strength and purpose
Victory is yours
Run...and laugh...and dance...
Now you are free
Run my son...Run
