

Wanda Leonard

February 24, 1960 - February 28, 2014

Wanda Leonard, 54, of Yale, was called to join her Lord on February 28, 2014, at her home with family by her side.

She was born in Detroit on February 24, 1960, the daughter of the late Loren and Ama Juanita (Wakefield) Leonard.

She was a member of Trinity Missionary Church of Yale where she was very active. She had a deep faith in her Lord. For many years, Wanda loved to make daily visits to the Yale Public Library.

Surviving are three sisters, Sharron Kavanaugh of Clinton Township, Deborah (Dave) Sherman of Shelby Township and Marie (Mike) Stringer of Avoca and four brothers, John of West Branch, David of Yale, Larry (Laurie) of Mt. Clemens and Allen Leonard of Yale; uncle, Elmo Wakefield of Tennessee; several nieces and nephews; close friends Terry Wright and Susie Gardner, as well as her loving Trinity Missionary Church family.

She is preceded in death by a brother, Michael Leonard.

The family honors the memory of Wanda and invite you to visit and share memories Monday 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Trinity Missionary Church, Yale, with funeral services to follow at 2:00 p.m. Chaplain Anthony Ferriell and Chaplain Steve Hittle, both of Heartland Hospice, will co-officiate. Inurnment will be in Elmwood Cemetery, Yale. Arrangements provided by Kaatz Funeral Directors, Yale.

Memorials are suggested to the Yale Public Library.

Cemetery Details

Elmwood Cemetery

11914 Yale Road
Brockway, MI

Previous Events

Visitation

MAR 3. 11:00 AM - 2:00 PM (ET)

Trinity Missionary Church
350 North Street
Yale, MI

Service

MAR 3. 2:00 PM - 2:30 PM (ET)

Trinity Missionary Church
350 North Street
Yale, MI

Tribute Wall

HM

“ I remeber the times that me my brother, and my Aunt Wanda would always go to the librRy and get goosebumps. Then we would get popcorn and a slushy. No one can ever make though memories go away. We would talk about boys and other funny thing. She always made me laugh. She loved us all and really love the LORD. I know I don't have to say goodbye but a see you later. I will see you again, you lovely, beautiful, gorgous, and halarious women.

Haley Matthews - April 30, 2014 at 03:42 PM

AL

“ She was the best ant ever

austin leonard - April 09, 2014 at 08:41 PM

AM

“ I knew Wanda and her parents at Gracemont Baptist Church in Marysville. I lived out of town and visited infrequently but I remember Wanda sitting with my Mother, Roceta Mertz, in church. I have corresponded with Wanda in the last months. She was a loving, caring person who loved the LORD and trusted Him to be her Father, Helper and Guide. I thank God for the blessing of knowing Wanda. Ardrue Mertz McMahan, Cherryville, NC

Ardrue McMahan - March 08, 2014 at 12:49 PM

KC

“ long ago in 1982,me,wanda & mrs leonard,went berry picking,we ate more than we picked,a train was so close it scared me terribly & for sum reason trying to leap inna tree was hilarius to wanda,hours later everytime she looked at me she laughed so hard,an embatrassing memory,but a funny one,the Wright family sends its condolences,R.I.P. WANDA

kelly conway-wright - March 02, 2014 at 12:16 PM