“ To the family of Willard Clair Kipp. Mr. Kipp will be dearly missed. Death is never easy to cope with. I am sure you will find comfort in the scripture at Acts 24:14. It mentions that there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. This gives us hope that we will be able to see our dead loved one again.##imported-begin##Reagan Barclay##imported-end##

“ I too know the pain of losing a loved one in death. Thankfully Almighty God has promised to soon swallow up death forever (Isa.25:8). With power from God, all those in the memorial tombs today will hear Jesus voice and come out by means of a future resurrection (John 5:28,29).##imported-begin##C. Phillips##imported-end##

“ Aunt Rosie, Steve and Tim
Life passes quickly yet it moves slowly.
We rejoice that Uncle Willard is with the Lord and that he is the happy, cheerful person we love and remember.
Heaven is looking more like home all the time. Even though we are not with you physically this afternoon and tomorrow we are thinking of you and will continue to in the coming days.
We love you!##imported-begin##Doris and Cathy “ Rosie, please accept our sincere sympathy for your loss. It's been many years since you were our favorite waitress at the Dairy Bar. You may remember us as the previous owners of Peters Funeral Home. Some people hold a special place in your heart. You are one of those. We will soon celebrate 73 wonderful years of marriage. We have been blessed. Thinking of you and your family at this difficult time.
